Salt Lake City	No accessory dwelling unit shall occupy more than fifty percent (50%) of the gross square footage of the single family dwelling. The square footage of an attached garage shall not be included in the gross square footage unless the accessory dwelling unit is located in a basement that includes habitable space below the garage.	Parking: An accessory dwelling unit shall require a minimum of one on-site parking space. If the property has an existing driveway, the driveway area located between the property line with an adjacent street and a legally located off-street parking area can satisfy the parking requirement if the parking requirement for the principal use is complied with and the driveway area has a space that is at least twenty feet (20') deep by eight feet (8') wide. The parking requirement may be waived if: (1) Legally located on street parking is available along the street frontage of the subject property; or  (2) The subject property is located within one-quarter (1/4) mile of transit stop.	Chapter 21A.40.200
Sandy	In no case shall an accessory apartment comprise more than 30 percent of the building's total floor area nor be greater than 800 square feet nor have more than 2 bedrooms, unless, in the opinion of the Planning Commission a greater or lesser amount of floor area is warranted by the circumstances of the particular building. An accessory apartment is a complete, separate housing unit that shall be within the original dwelling unit.	At least three off-street parking spaces shall be available for use by the owner of the home and the occupant(s) of the accessory apartment. The Planning Commission may approve up to three [3] additional vehicles provided that adequate off-street parking can be provided. The three [3] additional vehicles are in addition to those of the owner of the home. All parking shall be upon a hard surface (concrete, asphalt, brick, etc.) Tandem parking spaces are not to be counted for the purpose of determining additional required parking spaces. However, tandem parking by the occupants of the home is not prohibited. On-street parking is reserved for guests only.	https://sandy.utah.gov/home/showdocument?id=258
